ATHLETICS FORFEIT A GAME.

OBJECTING TO AN UMPIRE'S RULING. BE ORDERS A MAN TO GO BACK A BASE AND ON

HIS REFUSAL CALLS THE GAME. The 2 000 people who went down to St. George yesterday to witness the game of baseball between the Metropolitan and Athletic clube will not soon forget their outing. Comedy, tragedy and farce were intermingled in bewildering confusion. Umpire "Teddie" Sulhvan was the clown of the circus. He has been unfortunate in his career as an umpire as he changes his tactics his baseball path will be an scientious in his work and tries to do right, but even that cool quality has not brought him success.

Only five innings and a half were played in the game inning had been replete with interesting features one nine would take the lead only to relinquish it a sixth inning, with the score at 9 to 7 in their favor, of the sixth unning, with the score at 9 to 7 in their favor, when the excitement culminated in the game being called and given to the home club by the score of 9 to 0 Weyling, the first batter for the Athletica, sent the ball between right and centre field and as Hogan biundered and allowed it to pass him, Weyling continued around to third base. Umpire Sullivan ordered the player back to second base, saying that a hit in the direction of Babyion counted for only two bases. Acting under orders from his captain Weyling reduced to go back, and then the players of both teams flocked around the umpire and the enlowers stood up in their seats and shoulted. Welled Manager Mason to Captain Stovey he ran toward the press stand, "We win intrict the game to the field you've no business there," shouted Man-reavior to Mr. Mason.

(ason looked undecided until Stovey also yelled to his manre: "You go and ait down. I'll attend to this."

mpire Suilivan called widdly for a watch and Director trous handes him one. He repeated his command for ying to go sack to second base, but as that player reed, he called the game and gave victory to the Metropolis by the score of 9 to 0.

fier the game Umpire Suilivan and Managers Mason and for had an animated conversation. Mason threatened hyan with expusion and remarked: "I can't see why mpire sullivan indignantly replied that he was not a mpire sullivan indignantly replied that he was not a mon "ana that he only umpired for fun, anyway. Mason I him that he should not umpire to-day's game, but once at the grounds to-day at the usual hour, sweal of the Metropolitan playors say that Sullivan was it and that each club had agreed that a hit into the scenic sylon should only south for two bases no matter whether agree made an error on it before the ball got there or not, as his day as retired in quick order in the first inning, but the second the Athletics scored four runs. Larkin, the batter, made at hire-base hit to left field. O'Brien then the larker was thrown out at second and then the larker was thrown out at second and then co-base hit and then an error by Orr. Poorman made to-base hit and then an error by Orr. Poorman made to-base hit and then an error by Orr. Poorman made to-base hit and then an error by Orr.

Cownsend went to first on an error by Orr. Poorman made two-base hit and then an error by Roseman allowed Poorman and Townsend to score.

The home players began to but with effect in the fourth integrant allowed the players began to but with effect in the fourth integrant allowed three runs before the Quakers could make he necessary three outs. Our led off with a two-base hit and, going to third on a wild pitch, scored on a hit by Handisson. Hankinson made a daring steal to second and scored on a hit by Donohue. Gerhardt's sacrifice advanced Donohue or second and a hit by Conhuna sent him home.

A half dozen runs were scored in the fifth inning, three foing to each side. For the Metropolitians O'Brien made a wo-base hit and scored on a hit to right field by Orr. Handisson followed with a two-base hit. Orr scored on Donome's out to Poorman and Hankinson scored on a hit by fankinson. For the Athletics in the last half of the inning tauer and Larkin hit safely and both scored on a hit to left eld by Stovey. Stovey went to second on a passed ball and cored on a hit by McGair.

The score stood at seven to six in favor of the visiting layers at the end of the fifth inning and the onlookers were to select the bat with effect and added tures more runs to their core and regained the lead. O'Brien made a hit and on a hit by Orr went to third. Orr stole to second and both he and O'Brien scored on a know base hit by Hankilason. Hankinson cored on a hit by Donohne. Weyling then made the hit that rought the game to an end. The score of the game as played (as) "I hours. Pitcher Seward was fined $100 yesterday and was suspended by the Athietic Line. Be did not report to his manager carly enough in the evening.

The Mainhattan Athietic nine and the Brokaw club will play at the former's grounds to-day.

The Metropolitian and Athietic clubs play again at St. George, S. I., to-day. Lynch and Atkanson will probably be the pitchers. Pity the poor unpref.

It was asserted ast night that should the Metropolitian club Join the League and be transferred to Brooklyn the American Association would place the Louisville club in New-York.

It was said vesterday that You Der Ahe, of the St. Louis club, would not attend the League meeting at Acbury Park an Menday, but that he would be present by proxy.

The Sunday game at Wechawken on September 4 between the Metropolitan and St. Louis club will be a big affair. The Bottot club will escort the St. Louis club to the grounds and the New-York club will perform the same service for the Metropolitans. Ewing, of the New-York club, will unipine the game.

A large party of New-Yorkers started for Boston last night to be present at the New-York Boston game to-day. Should the New-York nine lose, it goes once into fourth place.

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

BALLIMORE, Aug. 12—Smith's fumble of Sommers's hot counder in the ninh inning gave to day's game to the home war, after an exciting struggly. Both Henderson and Killer of the home are the weights.

TROTTING AND PACING AT ROCHESTER. GEORGE TUFF RULED OFF FOR PULLING LORETTA F. ON WEDNESDAY.

ON WEDNESDAY.

ROCHESTER, Aug. 13 (Special).—There was a strong wind, clear weather, good track and fair attendance at the last day of the circuit races here. The first race, 2.33 class for $2,000, had seven statiers. Pools sold: Sarah B. $25, field $7. The layer te had two lengths the best of the send off in the first heat and won on a jog, the only contest being between Mik-maid and Dan S. for second place, which the former won. The second and third heats were taken with equal facility, the whole affair being a fizzle so far as any exhibition of speed was concerned.

The second race was the free-for-all pacing for $1,000. There were only three starters and the race was a fizzle for the reason that neither foliodo Giri nor Gossip, it., had any business pacing are not Johnson, who sold at odds of 10 to 1 seemst them. He was in straight heats with the contract of the

CHAMPION DAY AT MONMOUTH. HANOVER EXPECTED TO MEET VOLANTE AND FIRENZI.

Park. In 1886 Champion Day was spotled by a heavy storm, but to-day there is promise of good weather, and if no rain falls visitors to Monmouth are likely to see the best and most important contests of

The Bard is not expected to run in the Champion Stakes. He has been so sich nearly all this week tha it would be very unwise to start him. He ought not be called upon to meet Hanover, Firenzi and Volante at a mile and a half, except when he is fully himself and able to show all his speed and staying power. He is not in that condition row and he hught to stay in the stable. But his absence is saddening. If The Bard Troubadour, Hanover, Vo lante and Firenzi were to meet this afternoon, all thoroughly sound and thoroughly seasoned by plenty of fast work, it would be the most attractive turf contest that America has seen since George Kinney Woodford, Iroquols, Eole and Monitor, the champions of their day, met in the famous Special Stakes at Monmouth Park four years ago. But if Hanover, Volante and Firenzi run to-day it will be a that will stir the blood and hold the closest attention of all who see it.

Yet it would not be amazing if the Dwyers think discretion the better part of valor and dreide this afternoon not to start Hanover. He has hardly had time fully to recover from the staleness which over of May and June the Champion would be easily over of to-day Firenzi and Volante may prove too stubborn opponents. If he runs of course McLaugh-lin will ride him. The Dwyers would not trust their precious co't to any other hands. McLaughlin canno nde at 105. So Hanover must carry three or four and perhaps five pounds overweight. In his present condition he can hardly afford to concede a pound to Firenzi and Volante. A hard race to-day may ut-terly ruin his chances for the Omnibus Stakes next Saturday, in which he must meet Laggard at 125 pounds to Laggard's 118, and the Omnibus is a much richer prize than the Champton. On the whole the Dwyers would act wisely if they should keep Hanover in the stable to-lay.

If Hanover starts the present writer expects to se him beaten, simply because he cannot fully have recovered his May and June form. Firenzi is now trained to the hair and is going like great guns. has run the last half mile of a mile and a half has run the last half mile of a mile and a half trial in 48 seconds with 118 pounds up, and she came to fresh and strong. With only a hundred pounds up she will travel like a singed cat to-day. Hanover or no Hanover, her chances of winning the Champion are excelent. Of course Preciosa is of no account in this race; she will merely assist Firenzi as well as she can if she can, if she starts. Barnum has no chance unless it should rain heavily and the track be deep in mud. On a good track he cannot run fast enough for this crowd. He is entered in the fourth-race and will tribably start in that.

enough for this crowd. He is entered in the fourth race and will probably start in that.

Now as to Volante. Mr. Haldwin's horse is har vat his best yet. Wher. Royal Arch defeated him he could not run a bit and was fat as a prize pig. He is still too high in flesh. And at any time he is uncertain. He sometimes runs well but often runs badly. The present writer expects him to be beaten by Firenzi to day and looks to see that filly win the Champion Stakes, though she would have no chance if The Bard at his best could appear at the post.

AUCTION POOLS.

Three Italians were found unconscious in a room t vesterday morning. A strong smell of gas caused the child.

After they had retired sleepers in an adjoining room were disturbed by their quarreling. The woman was heard crying and requesting to have the gas lighted, but he refused. At the hospital, when the woman had recovered sufficiently to make a statement, she said that the gas was blown out by accident.

The State Board of Charities met yesterday at the law office of William B. Stewart, No. 54 William at. They were in executive session from 10 a.m. until after 7 p.m. The purpose of the meeting was understeed to be the consideration of the charges against the management of trail was made a practice of devouring refuse found in garbage receptacles, and they carry it to their meeting the members of the Board refused positively to give any information regarding their action. The A REPORT ON WARD'S ISLAND ADOPTED. to give any information regarding their action. They said that a report covering over forty pages of typesaid that a report covering over forty pages of type-writing copy had been adopted, but that it was in such a shape that it would be a physical impossibility to pre-pore it for publication. They said that certified copies of it would be intraised for publication next week and until then they had decided to say nothing whatever re-garding it. A rumor that a copy of the report had been sent to Mayor Hewitt, at far liarbor, they pronounced unitue. The full Board was present.

CHASING A HUSBAND OVER THE OCEAN. Ida Schlink's husband, Gustave, disappeared from his some in itamburg on July 28. She learned he had taken passage for New-York on the steamer Polynesia on the same day, and hurriedly disposing of her few worldly goods she sailed on the Hammonia three days later, and arrived at Castle (carden yesterday three heurs be one the Polynesia's passengers were landed and told her story. She was at once conducted to the clerk's compartment in the rotands and there she waited till the Polynesia's passengers filed in. Then she pointed him out and he was brought before her by one of the officers. When confronted by his wife his hands relaxed their holdon his bargare, to rubbed his eyes with both hands, took a second look at his described wife. Bropped on his knees and begged her pardon. Gustave swore that he had not intention of describing his airring ide more dark his only raxon for not belief her of his intention, as the delicate condition. They were permitted to go West to try their lines, after furthave promised to love, hone, protest and provide for her as a devoted husband should.

ARRESTED FOR AIDING A PRIZE FIGHT Captain Edward W. Edwards, of the steamer Bellevue, of the Sea Beach route, was arrested on Thursday for aiding and abetting in a prize fight on July 18. On the evening of that day a party of young inen engaged the steamer extensibly to have a monelight excitation to Oceawama island. On arriving at the island, the men forcibly took possession of a dancing paython and formed a ring for a prize fight. Jack Parcell, of Youkers, and Jacz Francis, of Dobb's Ferry, were the principals. After a severe battle the fight was awarded to Farrell, the principals, Farrel and Francis, were arrested by the Youkers pointeen the following day, and were held for trial in $500 ball each. On the complaint of three officers of the Iron Steamboat Company, John II. Raster, Justice of the Prace, of Peekssill, Issued a warrant for the arrest of Captain Edwards, and Justice Dudy, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, gave him into the custody of the officer. Edwards will be taken to Peekskill for trial. abetting in a prize fight on July 18. On the evening of that

THE " FRENCH MADAME" ARRESTED. Eliza Porcet, commonly known as the "French Madame," came to the surface again yesterday because of an order of arrest issued by Christian II. Studer, who sued the woman for $10,000 damages for loss of place reputation, etc. He was induced, he said, by the woman's false representations of respectability, etc., to put $2,000 \text{ into a perturbation with Henry Schnitz, as the woman's representative in the "Cafe titche, at No. 40 West Twenty minimal. Now, being sick of his bargain and the experiences, also having had his eyes ruthlessly opened to the fact that Mrs. Forret is not respectable, and furthermore having given up a position as head waiter at the Grand Hotel, he wishes heavy damages. Mrs. Forret was arrested and admitted to $5,000 bail by Justice Donohue. James Barclay and James S. Reynolds became her squeet.

UNUSUAL VELOCITY OF THE GULF STREAM. Captain Stevens, of the steamer Manhattan, which arrived from Havana on Wednesday and came to the city yesterday from Havana on Wedneslay and came to the city yesterday, reports another of the freaks of the Gulf Stream which are often so contusing to the calculations of mariners. Between latitudes 24° and 30° the current was running at the rate of 3'-yknot an hour, or if a vessel's sails were furied and the engines were stopped, she would be carried along eighty-four miles in twenty-four hoirs. This is an unusually high velocity off the Florida coast and more frequently occurs in May than at any other season, but is thought to be due to barometric pressure in the Caribbran Sea. On the day before, Sanday, a terrific wind-storm was experienced, lasting from 14.

HE BROKE A WINDOW TO GET NOTORIETY. Jacob Kerbstein, a wild-looking German. fifty-two years old, walked up the steps leading to the main entrance of the City Hall about noon yesterday and deliberately threw a T. H. Stevens's b. m. Florimore, 3, 102. (Johnson)

READY TO TRY THE NEW CRUISERS. The cruisers Boston and Chicago are both lying at their wharves in the Navy Yard, coaled and ready for their steam wharves in the Navy Yard, coaled and ready for their steam trials as soon as orders are received from Washinston. The Boston will probably start for her trial trip for four hours under forced draft up the Sound on Tuesday. This is not to be a speed trial, but one to determine whether the required 3,500 horse-power can be developed, with an average speed of ensines of seventy-five revolutions per minute. The adjustments that were ordered to her machinery are nearly completed. The cruiser Chicago is ready to be coaled for her deck trial, which will probably be made. The dispatch bost Dolphin is not to return here as reported, nor did she meet with any accident. She is going to Bar Harbow, where Capitain Richard W. Meade will take command of her.
